

ESTANCIA EL RINCON

HIGH VOLUME DOVE SHOOTING/GOLDEN DORADO FISHING $895 per person per night

Included: All ground transportation, all meals including beer, wine and cocktails, single-room accommodations, Entre Rios Province hunting and fishing license and guided hunting and fishing outings. Use of high quality bait casting and spinning rods and good reels is included in the price, as are all dorado lures. Fly fishermen need to bring their own rods, reels, leader, flies, etc. First rate back-ups for all fly gear and flies will be available at the lodge in case of trouble with fly equipment.

Not included: Commercial or charter air travel, Argentine gun permits or gun rental, shotgun shells, fly fishing equipment and flies, gratuities, laundry, and miscellaneous purchases.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

A valid passport is required to enter Argentina. A visa is not required.

TAKING GUNS

The process for taking shotguns to Argentina has become more difficult and we strongly suggest hunters plan to use one of the lodge's very fine Beretta or Benelli semi-automatics, or Beretta over/unders. Of course the lodge provides backups and cleans all guns after each outing. Hunters taking guns will encounter lengthy delays at Customs in Argentina and will have to secure Consular permits (for semi-autos) from regional Argentine Consulates in the U.S., which can be a time-consuming process.

SHELLS/GUN RENTAL

Payment for your shells can be made with cash or a personal check, and will be handled as you depart. Traveler's Checks or credit cards are not accepted. The current cost for shells is $14/box and gun rental is $60/day. THESE PRICES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

AIRLINE SCHEDULING

Many excellent carriers, such as American, Delta, United Airlines, LATAM, and Aerolineas Argentinas offer flight service to Argentina from Dallas/Fort Worth, New York, Miami, Atlanta, or Los Angeles. Most flights depart the U.S. in the evening and arrive Argentina early to late morning the next day. Please note: on the way home, if your flight is one of the few that departs BA in the afternoon, you will have difficulty managing a hunt on your departure morning if your flight home from BA is prior to 5 p.m.

Rod & Gun Resources will be happy to assist in arranging your air travel, or you are welcome to purchase tickets on your own.

We are in constant contact with Estancia El Rincon and our Buenos Aires transfer agencies. Both organizations do an outstanding job handling all incoming/outgoing transfers.

CLIMATE/CLOTHING

For doves, use dark green/brown or camo clothes with a corresponding hat. Ankle-height shoes/boots are adequate. Do not take light-colored hunting clothing. Light rain gear (brown, green or camo) is a must.

Temperatures will range from the mid-50s to upper-80s.

Evening wear in all areas will be very informal—whatever is most comfortable, including hunting clothes if you wish. The only need for coat and tie is at sophisticated restaurants in Buenos Aires.

GRATUITIES

Gratuities for lodge staff and hunting and fishing guides are not included in hunt cost, and we suggest around $65-$75 total per day per person as a general guideline. This will be distributed by the outfitters to luggage handlers, fishing guides, pick-up boys, and lodge or lodge staff.

Gratuities to hotel staff and at restaurants in Buenos Aires are not included; the standard restaurant tip is 10 to 15 percent.

LANGUAGE

Spanish is the national language, although English is spoken in most shops and restaurants.

IN BUENOS AIRES

Shopping: Most shops are generally open all day to 7 p.m. on weekdays and until 1 p.m. on Saturdays. Florida Street (Calle Florida) is for pedestrians only and is lined with many attractive shops. One example is Mundo del Cuero (World of Leather) which houses two dozen leather goods merchants.

Restaurants: The restaurant environment in Buenos Aires is very diverse and dynamic. We suggest that you consult with your transfer agent or hotel concierge for recommendations or assistance with reservations for any restaurant. You should plan on eating a little later than you may be used to in the U.S.—many Argentines don't eat dinner until 10 p.m., and most restaurants do not begin serving dinner until 8:00 p.m.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Check the expiration date on your passport to be sure it is valid for travel. Some countries require that the passport is valid for as much as one year from your date of entry. And, again, take a photocopy of the photo page of the passport, in case you lose the original.
- Always take a raincoat (in hunting colors) and always take it with you on each outing.
- Always take your passport, airline tickets, medications, camera equipment and valuables in a carry-on such as a backpack or small valise.
- Bring a bandanna for use as a handkerchief and to cover your slightly bald head if you misplace your cap.
- Bring two pairs of sunglasses.
